

Instructions for Filing

Application for Appointment to Office of Justice of the Peace

Section 42-30-5 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, 1956, as amended

This legal document should be typed. All illegible documents will be REJECTED.

How to complete the form:

The Rhode Island Office of Justice of the Peace is available to Rhode Island residents, non-residents who conduct business on a regular basis within the State of Rhode Island, and Attorneys and Certified Public Accountants in good standing.

All applicants are required to know the powers and duties of the Rhode Island Office of Justice of the Peace. Educational materials are available at www.sos.ri.gov/divisions/Notary-Public. Please review RIGL 42-30; Executive Order 09-08; Standards of Conduct and all accompanying rules and regulations prior to remitting your application.

The power to perform a marriage ceremony is NOT granted to Justices of the Peace by Rhode Island Law.

Application Information

1. List your full legal name.
2. List your current address.
3. Check one box only:
 - If applying as a non-resident you must provide your occupation, name of employer and business address in the State of Rhode Island.
 - If applying as an Attorney, you must provide your Bar Number and a copy of your most recent membership card to the RI Bar Association. Do not provide a copy of your Judicial Identification Card.
 - If applying as a Certified Public Accountant, you must provide your Certificate# and a copy of your most recent membership card issued by the RI Board of Accountancy.
4. Sign the application using the signature you will affix to documents as a Rhode Island Justice of the Peace. Type or Print your name as it will appear on your commission. (This name should match the signature you will affix to documents as a Rhode Island Justice of the Peace)

Oath of Office

All applicants must appear before a Rhode Island Notary Public or Justice of the Peace to complete the Oath of Office. The Notary or Justice of the Peace will administer your oath of office.

1. The applicant completes the "Applicant" section of the certificate.
2. The Notary Public or Justice of the Peace administering the oath completes the "Notary" or "Justice of the Peace" section of the certificate.

How to pay the filing fee:

The filing fee for a four year commission is $80, payable either in person via cash, credit card, or check at the Business Services Division, or by mail to the Business Services Division via check made payable to the R.I. Department of State.

How to confirm your filing:

You will receive your Justice of the Peace Commission in the mail in approximately three weeks. Your term will expire four years from the date of commission. A renewal notice will be mailed to you at the address listed, so please contact this office if you change your address.

How to maintain your commission:

Visit our website at www.sos.ri.gov/divisions-notary-public for information on keeping your commission active and up to date.
